Basic Scenario 1

Adam B. Cooke needs your help in completing his tax return. Adam worked most of the year as a machinist, but was unemployed during the early part of the year and received unemployment compensation. Adam cannot find the form he received from the State U/E Fund but says he received $1200 total in January and February 2005. He did not have anything withheld from his Unemployment. Adam has his W-2 form and completed an Interview & Intake Sheet to help in preparing his return.

In addition to his W-2, Adam gives you a Form 1098-T he received from Brown College. He is taking classes for a degree in business. He asks the best way to treat the tuition paid on his tax return.

Adam wants to designate $3 to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund as long as it doesn't cost anything. If he gets a refund, he wants it mailed to his home address.

Basic Scenario 2

Carolyn Jackson is a single parent. She provides all the support for her children, Marcus and Tina, who live with her. Carolyn works for National Bank as a secretary. She gives you all the information documents she has received and says she has no other income. Carolyn has completed an Interview & Intake Sheet to help with the preparation of her return. She indicates she would like any refund directly deposited into her account at the bank and provides you a check.

After looking at her documents, you ask Carolyn if she has received any notice of her Earned Income Tax Credit being disallowed or reduced in the past two years and she tells you no. Carolyn tells you she does not want to designate any contribution to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

During the interview, you determine she does not qualify for any adjustments to her total income. You also review her expenses and determine it is not to her advantage to itemize deductions. Carolyn states she did not forfeit any of her dependent care benefit. She also explains that the payments made to Quality Child Care were for after school care for Marcus and Tina. She paid the same amount for each child.

Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8812 to figure your additional child tax credit. The additional child tax credit may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax.

Who Should Use Form 8812

First, complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet that applies to you. See the instructions for Form 1040, line 52, or Form 1040A, line 33. If you meet the condition given in the TIP at the end of your Child Tax Credit Worksheet, use Form 8812 to see if you can take the additional child tax credit.

Effect of Credit on Welfare Benefits

Any refund you receive as a result of taking the additional child tax credit will not be used to determine if you are eligible for the following programs, or how much you can receive from them. But if the refund you receive because of the additional child tax credit is not spent within a certain period of time, it may count as an asset (or resource) and affect your eligibility.

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).
- Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
- Food stamps and low-income housing.

Earned Income

To figure the amount to include on line 4a, answer the four questions below. Also, see Nontaxable combat pay next.

Nontaxable combat pay received in 2005 must be included in earned income for purposes of the additional child tax credit. If you, or your spouse if filing jointly, did not elect to include nontaxable combat pay in earned income when figuring the earned income credit (EIC) on Form 1040, line 66a, or Form 1040A, line 41a, or if you are not taking the EIC, add any nontaxable combat pay not included in your earned income figured in question 2 or 4 on this page. Enter the total on Form 8812, line 4a.

General Instructions

What's New

Change to computation of Hope Credit. To simplify Part I, the order of the operations in computing the Hope credit has been changed. See Specific Instructions, Part I, and follow the instructions to correctly figure the Hope credit.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8863 to figure and claim your education credits. The education credits are:

- The Hope credit, and
- The lifetime learning credit.

Who Can Take the Credits

You may be able to take the credits if you, your spouse, or a dependent you claim on your tax return was a student enrolled at or attending an eligible educational institution. The credits are based on the amount of qualified education expenses paid for the student in 2005 for academic periods beginning in 2005 and the first 3 months of 2006.

Qualified education expenses must be reduced by any expenses paid directly or indirectly using tax-free educational assistance. See Tax-Free Educational Assistance and Refunds of Qualified Education Expenses on this page.

Note. If a student is claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return, only the person who claims the student as a dependent can claim the credits for the student's qualified education expenses. If a student is not claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return, only the student can claim the credits.

Generally, qualified education expenses paid on behalf of the student by someone other than the student (such as a relative) are treated as paid by the student. Also, qualified education expenses paid (or treated as paid) by a student who is claimed as a dependent on your tax return are treated as paid by you. Therefore, you are treated as having paid expenses that were paid from your dependent student's earnings, gifts, inheritances, savings, etc.

You cannot take the education credits if any of the following apply.

- You are claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return, such as your parent's return (but see the Note above).
- Your filing status is married filing separately.
- Your adjusted gross income on Form 1040, line 38, or Form 1040A, line 22, is (a) $107,000 or more if married filing jointly, or (b) $53,000 or more if single, head of household, or qualifying widow(er).
- You are taking a deduction for tuition and fees on Form 1040, line 34, or Form 1040A, line 19, for the same student.
- You (or your spouse) were a nonresident alien for any part of 2005 and the nonresident alien did not elect to be treated as a resident alien.

Additional Information

See Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Education, for more information about these credits.

Rules That Apply to Both Credits

Qualified Education Expenses

Generally, qualified education expenses are amounts paid in 2005 for tuition and fees required for the student's enrollment or attendance at an eligible educational institution. It does not matter whether the expenses were paid in cash, by check, by credit card, or with borrowed funds.

Qualified education expenses do not include amounts paid for:

- Room and board, insurance, medical expenses (including student health fees), transportation, or other similar personal, living, or family expenses.
- Course-related books, supplies, equipment, and nonacademic activities, except for fees required to be paid to the institution as a condition of enrollment or attendance.
- Any course or other education involving sports, games, or hobbies, or any noncredit course, unless such course or other education is part of the student's degree program or (for the lifetime learning credit only) helps the student to acquire or improve job skills.

If you or the student take a deduction for higher education expenses, such as on Schedule A or Schedule C (Form 1040), you cannot use those expenses when figuring your education credits.

Any qualified expenses used to figure the education credits cannot be taken into account in determining the amount of a distribution from a Coverdell ESA or a qualified tuition program that is excluded from gross income.

Tax-Free Educational Assistance and Refunds of Qualified Education Expenses

Tax-free educational assistance includes a tax-free scholarship or Pell grant or tax-free employer-provided educational assistance. See Pub. 970 for specific information.

You must reduce the total of your qualified education expenses by any tax-free educational assistance and by any refunds of your expenses. If the refund or tax-free assistance is received in the same year in which the expenses were paid or in the following year before you file your tax return, reduce your qualified education expenses by the amount received and figure your education credits using the reduced amount of qualified expenses. If the refund or tax-free assistance is received after you file your return for the year in which the expenses were paid, you must figure the amount by which your education credits would have been reduced if the refund or tax-free assistance had been received in the year for which you claimed the education credits. Include that amount as an additional tax for the year the refund or tax-free assistance was received on the tax line of your 2005 tax return (Form 1040, line 44, or Form 1040A, line 28). Enter the amount and "ECR" next to that line.

Example. You paid $8,000 tuition and fees in December 2004, and your child began college in January 2005. You filed your 2004 tax return on February 2, 2005, and claimed a lifetime learning credit of $1,600. After you filed your return, your child dropped two courses and you received a refund of $1,400. You must refigure your 2004 lifetime learning credit using $6,600 of qualified expenses instead of $8,000. The refigured credit is $1,320. You must include the difference of $280 on your 2005 Form 1040, line 44, or Form 1040A, line 28.

Prepaid Expenses

Qualified education expenses paid in 2005 for an academic period that begins in the first 3 months of 2006 can be used in figuring your 2005 education credits. For example, if you pay $2,000 in December 2005 for qualified tuition for the 2006 winter quarter that begins in January 2006, you can use that $2,000 in figuring your 2005 education credits (if you meet all the other requirements).

You cannot use any amount paid in 2004 or 2006 to figure your 2005 education credits.

Eligible Educational Institution

An eligible educational institution is generally any accredited public, nonprofit, or proprietary (private) college, university, vocational school, or other postsecondary institution. Also, the institution must be eligible to participate in a student aid program administered by the Department of Education. Virtually all accredited postsecondary institutions meet this definition.

Specific Instructions

Part I Hope Credit

You may be able to take a credit of up to $1,500 for qualified education expenses (defined earlier) paid for each student who qualifies for the Hope credit. You can take the Hope credit for a student if all of the following apply.

- As of the beginning of 2005, the student had not completed the first 2 years of postsecondary education (generally, the freshman and sophomore years of college), as determined by the eligible educational institution. For this purpose, do not include academic credit awarded solely because of the student's performance on proficiency examinations.
- The student was enrolled in 2005 in a program that leads to a degree, certificate, or other recognized educational credential.
- The student was taking at least one-half the normal full-time workload for his or her course of study for at least one academic period beginning in 2005.
- The Hope credit was not claimed for that student's expenses in more than one prior tax year.
- The student has not been convicted of a felony for possessing or distributing a controlled substance.

If a student does not meet all of the above conditions, you may be able to take the lifetime learning credit for part or all of that student's qualified education expenses instead.

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (f) on line 1 for each student who qualifies for and for whom you elect to take the Hope credit.

Note. If you have more than three students who qualify for the Hope credit, enter "See attached" next to line 1 and attach a statement with the required information for each additional student. Include the amounts from line 1, column (f), for all students in the total you enter on line 2.

Column (c)

For each student, enter the amount of qualified education expenses remaining after reduction by certain tax-free amounts and refunds, as explained earlier. The expenses must have been paid for the student in 2005 for academic periods beginning after 2004 but before April 1, 2006, as explained under Prepaid Expenses. If the student's expenses are more than $2,000, enter $2,000. You may use the worksheet on this page to figure the correct amount to enter in column (c).

If you are filing a joint return, include both spouses' amounts in both columns.

Exception. Do not include your spouse's distributions with yours when entering an amount on line 4 if you and your spouse did not file a joint return for the year the distribution was received.

Example. You received a distribution of $5,000 from a qualified retirement plan in 2005. Your spouse received a distribution of $2,000 from a Roth IRA in 2003. You and your spouse file a joint return in 2005, but did not file a joint return in 2003. You would include $5,000 in column (a) and $7,000 in column (b).

Line 7

Add the amounts from line 6 columns (a) and (b), and enter the total.
